

Lisa Miller
Ministries

Rev. Lisa Leigh Miller

Author

Christian Speaker

Mentor for Survivors of Abuse

Certified in the Prevention and Intervention of Human Trafficking

Lisa Leigh Miller is the author of the acclaimed autobiography, Sold to the Highest Bidder. The book recounts her mother's death that led Lisa to be in the custody of her father, a career criminal. When he was arrested in a foreign country, Lisa found herself being auctioned at the age of 2. At last ransomed, she was molested by her own family members for years. Lisa's story testifies to the faithfulness and healing power of God's abundant grace. He miraculously and lovingly delivered her from soul-crushing heartache and loneliness. God has called Lisa to share his relentless love through her personal testimony. The love God has given, he desires to give to all.

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come:
The old has gone, the new is here!" 2 Corinthians 5:17

Speaking Topics

Abuse is not Earned: Shame is a Lie

Defined by God - Not by the Past

Freedom: Forgiving the Unforgivable

Healing the Deeply Wounded Heart

Learning to Breathe Again: Life After the Loss of a Child

Letting Go: Releasing the Past to Accept the Future

Love: What it is and What it is Not!

Mistaken Identity: Who Does God Say You Are?

Purpose: From Victim to Survivor to Champion

Red Flags: Signs of Human Trafficking

Out of the darkness emerges the butterfly

Call to book Lisa for your group or event.

LisaMillerMinistries.com

(405) 517-3639

